

Route 34 Urban Boulevard

New Haven, CT

TDG is currently assisting in roadway improvements for Route 34 from the I-95 interchange to the city's downtown, the goal of which is to calm traffic and create an attractive and appropriate gateway for the city. At this stage in the project, TDG has conducted research and analysis on the roadway's past and present context to envision how its design can impact present and future civic visions.